ST.LOUIS.MO.SUNDAY.SEPTEMBER 1.1901

The Sunday Republic's Collection of songs.

THE OLD TIN PLATE.

MUSIC SUPPLEMENT TO THE ST.LOUIS REPUBLIC.

USED BY PERMISSION OF THE BALMER AND WEBER
MUSIC HOUSE COMPANY.
ST LOUIS

THE OLD TIN PLATE

Words by GEORGE RUSSELL JACKSON.

Music by J. A BARNEY.

Andante.

PIANO.

mf

Voice.

1 Who does not re-mem - ber the old tin plate, With the clock and the al pa -
2 Oh, ma - ny and hard were the knocks it stood, And oft en it fell to the 3 Oh, the old clock nev - er has moved its hands, Tho' the years have fled a

p bet? We may not re - mem - ber the food that we ate, But the floor, While the old Tom - cat made a spring for the food, And way, At the same old hour the point er stands. Tho' we

Copyright, 1881, by BALMER & WEBER plate we can ne'er for get, The mem ries bright of the fled like a flash thro' the door We played rub-a - dub with a we're turn ing old and gray It brings back the days o our long, long a - go, Which time can ne'er de stroy, clothes pin, too, But the plate we could ne'er de stroy,

youth a- gain, Bright hours of hope and joy.

Are Oh, the Oh, the

brought back to me by the old tin plate, That I ate from when a boy old tin plate with the al pha - bet, That I ate from when a boy
old tin plate with the al pha - bet, That I ate from when a boy

The old tin plate.

CHORUS.

SOP'R. Oh, the old tin plate, Oh, the old tin plate, It served as a dish and a

ALTO Oh, the old tin plate, old tin plate, It served as a dish and a

TENOR Oh, the old tin plate, old tin plate, It served as a dish and a

BASS Oh, the old tin plate, old tin plate, It served as a dish and a

PIANO or ORGAN

toy; Oh, the old tin plate with the al - pha - bet, That I ate from when a boy

toy, Oh, the old tin plate with the al - pha - bet, That I ate from when a boy.

toy Oh, the old tin plate with the al - pha - bet, That I ate from when a boy

toy Oh the old tin plate with the al pha bet, That I ate from when a boy

J. M. ARMSTRONG & CO., MUSIC TYPOGRAPHERS, Philadelphia